

The Mel Fisher Maritime Museum is looking for volunteers!

The Mel Fisher Maritime Heritage Society is the official maritime museum of Monroe county. We are dedicated to maintaining and enriching the cultural life of the community and region through research, exploration, accumulation, preservation, display, and publication of maritime history.

Our Volunteer Program will allow interested individuals the opportunity to work with the museum on the following activities:

CONSERVATION:

Discover artifacts from our region's history in our conservation lab.

DOCENTS:

Provide guests with information and tours about our various exhibitions.

EXHIBITIONS:

Assist with research, design and construction on our changing exhibitions.

LIBRARY / ARCHIVES:

Organize and catalog books, artifacts, and other unique items from the Society's vast collection.

GUEST RELATIONS:

Greet and inform guests of the museum; conduct guest satisfaction surveys.

EDUCATION PROGRAMS:

Work with our education team on our variety of programs, group tours and events.

SPECIAL EVENTS:

Work with our events team with organization and facilitation of our various events, lectures, and openings.

ADMINISTRATIVE / MEMBERSHIP:

Utilize your computer and administrative experience to work with the Society's executive and administrative team.
